

Roland Wants the Moon

Written by Walt Segarra • Illustrations by Tim Loomis

A woman and a young child are shown from the chest up, looking up at a large, bright full moon in a dark, starry night sky. The woman, on the right, has blonde hair and is wearing a dark blue jacket over a white top. The child, on the left, is wearing a blue jacket. Both are pointing their right index fingers towards the moon. They are standing in a field of tall grass and small flowers. In the background, there are dark silhouettes of trees and hills under the night sky.

*What is that Light
Up in the Sky?*

*It Shines so Bright
Please Tell Why.*

It's Like a Ball or Maybe a Balloon!

Can I have it
In My Room?

It's So Big and Round

Up in the Sky

They Say It's Made of Cheese

*I want to Have It!
Please oh Please*

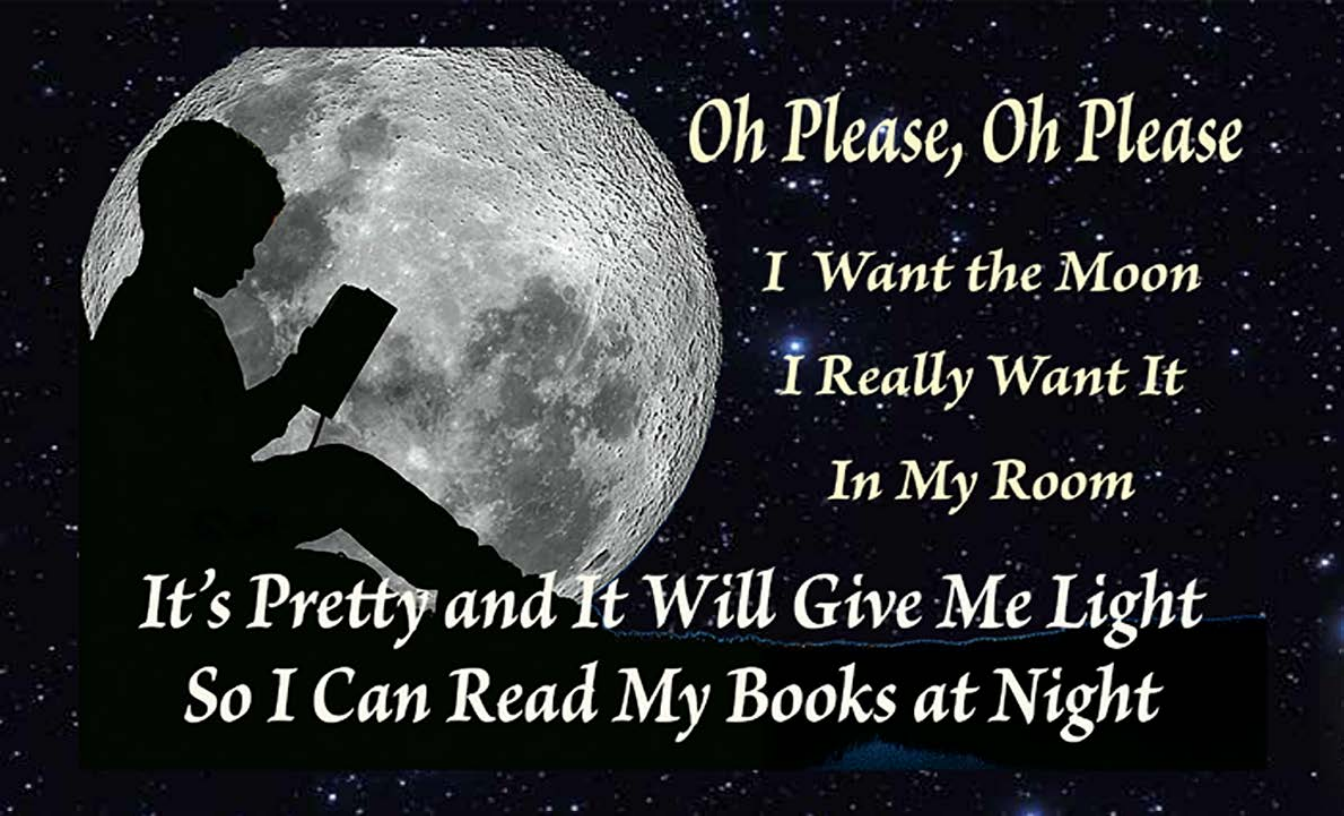

I'd like to Pin It to My Wall

Or Maybe Pin It
Way Up Tall

On the Ceiling
Where It Might Fall
and I will Catch It
Like a Ball

Oh Please, Oh Please

I Want the Moon

I Really Want It

In My Room

*It's Pretty and It Will Give Me Light
So I Can Read My Books at Night*

I want the Moon
Up in My Room
So I Can See It
Every Night.

*I'll Think of Going
there Some Day.*

When I am Grown, and Time is Right

When the time is right
I will go for sure

Because it is so Big and Bright

Because it is so Big and Bright,
I think I will go there on a Kite

Oh Please, Oh Please,

*I Want
the Moon.*

I Really Want It in my the Room

Then I will sleep The Whole Night Long and Wake Up when It is Gone.

Tim Loomis

A graphic artist, web designer who is a grandfather, so this project with Walt was a lot of fun and inspirational.
Creating the images to spark the minds of young people in looking up at the stars & the moon.
